

6 Steps for Resolving Conflict in Marriage

Lesson 22

Homework

Questions

1. Since every marriage has its tensions, it isn't a question of avoiding them but of _____.
2. One reason we have conflict in marriage is that _____.
3. Two people beginning their marriage together and trying to go their own selfish, separate ways can never hope to experience the _____ as God intended.
4. To pursue the resolution of a conflict means setting aside your own _____, _____, and _____. It means not losing heart.
5. Blessed is the marriage where both spouses feel the other is a _____ who will listen, understand, and work through any problem or conflict.
6. The key to maintaining an open, intimate, and happy marriage is to ask for and grant _____ quickly.
7. Forgiving means giving up _____ and the _____.
8. To give a blessing first means stepping aside or simply refusing to _____ if your spouse gets angry.
9. God's purpose in our conflicts is to _____, to produce _____, to refine us, and to bring glory to Himself.